

Old Scholars' Science Centre Building, Loreto College Marryatville, South Australia

Loreto College is a private Catholic boarding school for girls at primary and secondary levels. Located 4 kilometres from Adelaide's CBD in Marryatville, South Australia, 1,000 students are enrolled at the school including 70 boarders. A new state-of-the-art Science Centre has been built with five laboratories, multiple breakout learning areas and an undercover learning space extending into the gardens. The new purpose-built facility is to provide students with the right fundamentals to further develop their skills and knowledge, with the aim of inspiring the next generation of scientists.
